McClintock, the winter of 1899 he came to New York and in his first season at the Metropolitan opera house firmily established his position as one of the leading baritones of the day. For the last 14 years his career divided between London and New York has been one of unbroken success. Scotti was taught singing by Mme Prifari Payanin hereif a nunti of the eld. Payanini—herself a pupil of the eld-er Lamperti—and has expressed in print his great indebtedness to her skill. Like many other singers be-fore him he was a little impatient at being kept back in his young days, but at last when the opportunity of doing heavy dramatic work came him he recognized the wisdom of teacher's methods, his carefully placed voice being equal to all rea-sonable demands made upon it.

Scotti's voice is peculiarly agree-able in quality and his vocal style singularly free from the voices of the modern Italian school. His reperworked into its proper swing, in the first lap of the jourine the first lap of the jourined at New York the car was

Having the foresight to carry with him from America 60 pounds of candy and thousands of candy and thousands of cigarets, on which he willingly paid heavy duty, he found that by dispensing them freely he could get what money could not hav, a snap-shot of some fort or other military property, where kudaks were harred; access into muni-tion plants, where visitors were not generally admitted, an extra supply of clean towels or a bot water bottle tucked in the foot of his bed in London's cold chesriess hotel guest rooms, and a hundred destrables that arise when traveling in a war-oppressed coun-

What Color Of A Tune Do You Like

Perhaps you don't realize there are pink pieces of music, red rags, violet jazz, and blue melodies.

Those who know best about music say so; and undoubtedly we have heard topical songs with a dash of lavender.

Color crops out everywhere. When Goodrich brought forth Black Tread rubber, the color caught; and soon a lot of tires were singing the black song in treads.

Of course it is quality, not color, that makes Goodrich treadsoutwear others.

The distinctive coloring of Silvertown Cord Tires, and their graceful modeling make them much sought by motorists to dress smart cars.

But Goodrich would make them ugly as an old shoe if ugliness would add another mile to their durability.
